Speakers & topics

My favorite part/s were the speakers.

Connecting with other like minded professional women personally, professionally and philanthropically (the good old APW tagline, I know ;) and expanding my horizons (a/k/a thinking outside the box!)

Psyche Hike

The Talent show!

All of it but the keynote speakers were the best!! I loved meeting all my new sisters!! Thank you!!

I met some nice women I wouldn't have otherwise met. It was great opportunity to meet some new ladies.

hearing speakers and visiting with friends

Not being in a Personal Services suite and feeling like I was actually a part of Camp and the Committee. I loved working in the Bow-tique and really look forward to working with Kathleen next year. My other favorite part was spending an hour fishing with Char during the Big Adventure.

Connecting with so many amazing inspiring women!

speakers and making new freinds

The people!

The energy level, time for me and new friends.

Listening to the speakers. Being Inspired. Being challenged in discovering my passion. Personal growth. Finding courage. Connecting with my close group of friends.

getting to know people and their ideas. Being inspired by speakers. Indulging in personal services.

The speakers were fantastic and the comaraderie was wonderful. I really enjoyed meeting so many talented,creative, and caring women.

Meeting amazing women and feeling like I was just as important as they are. Not knowing someones "status or association" really helped open up to talk to people. I loved that our name tags only had our name, I felt like I could talk to anyone!

Gathering of women in a nurturing and non-judgmental function- fabulous to get that many women together and supporting one another!

Speakers!! Colleen Abdoulah was fabulous. I loved her message, and I loved hearing about her life.

Massage

Meeting fellow campers. I loved the free flow of the day and didn't feel over-scheduled but was always doing something. I was able to have a treatment that didn't interrupt with the speaker schedule, which I was happy about as well.

variety

It's hard to narrow it down to one favorite but I love meeting all the new and interesting people.

Favorite parts: meeting new women, being challenged by great speakers, having personal to think about my own goals.

I don't have one favorite part, so I'm going to name 3:

1. The fellowship with like-minded women.
2. The self-defence class
3. The food :)

Meeting new people and hearing great stories

Absolutely the women! I thoroughly enjoyed meeting some really great women and connecting with them. Loved all the speakers. Location was perfect!! Did you order the perfect weather too?:)

I love the speakers, massage, Hike, food

It was such a rush of different experiences. It was fun, entertaining, inspirational, educational, relevant to my personal life and work. It would be not fair to just pick one event so I choose to comment on the whole.

Where do I start? I love the sense of community with amazing women. The speakers helped to relight a fire in my slightly fried being. The self-defense class was intense and SO important.

Getting to meet other great women.

The speakers at the meals/

The sense of support for one another and our creative lives generated by the speakers and by Betsy's approachable, inclusive, enthusiastic style.

The people, the atmosphere

Meeting new people, keynote speakers, talent show, and all the amazing gifts!!! Also enjoyed evening networking opportunities - met some amazing women and had a chance to really connect.

time with friends, networking

speakers

Connecting with old friends. Helping other women to face their fears, fun!

the variety of keynote speakers

Receiving the plastic crowns, have no idea why!

Letting your Inner Beyonce out!

Elizabeth Fayt

The speakers were amazing and the strong sense of empowerment and belief in ourselves and our dreams! Remembering our " little light and letting it shine" for all the world to see!!!!

Good speakers and workshops. And nice to be a part of donating to the charity partners.

The women and the stories they bring. So inspiring

I like the keynote speakers, happy hour, the talent show, fun surprise gifts and the sisterhood that I feel.

The empowerment of women through inspirational speakers and activities.

Very high quality speakers.

Keynote Speakers

The availability of so many different topics to select from to learn what each one of needs to learn, and it's different for everyone. 4 of us came with 4 different goals and each one of us came out with a plan. Some personal, some business, some both!

1. Fly Fishing
2. Sharing time with camp sisters/speakers and meeting new campers

Being part of the committee this year.

The women I met - which means, Betsy, the women you attract!

Creating a sense of sisterhood -- which I would like to sustain throughout the year.

The kindness and kind of people there.

talent show

Networking and meeting fabulous women with positive attitudes.

Getting away and connecting with some incredible women, being inspired

- 1.The overall atmosphere of love and creativity that Betsy so beautifully creates.
- 2.Meeting the incredible women who came to my workshop
- 3.The talent show
- 4.Collen Abdulah, LeAnne Thieman

Networking/socializing with everyone,breakout,Keynote and whole group activities

Inspiration from amazing speakers and wonderful charities. I also loved my massage!

Colleen's luncheon address on Saturday.

Meeting all the interesting and wonderful women. The boutique is also a great idea and loved the keynote speakers. Chef Shelley's class was amazing too.

Being involved with such energetic, young, fun, intelligent women and the speakers. Loved the film festival!

The ENERGY !!!! Each event was palpable and electric. The women share and talk so candidly and openly. It's the real beauty of the weekend ... there are no strangers and no one is left out. Grab the gusto and run with it. It is just wonderful.

Helping the charity partners, networking with other women

The people it brings together.

It's hard to put into words-the speakers were s;pectacular-truly spectacular. The venue could not have been more beautiful..the food supurb. BUT, I believe it was mainly about the women...I must admit that I did not believe all the talk about 'a-hah' moments. I was wrong...the most beautiful experiences with CampExperience were the women.

Self Defense...I only attended on Sunday.

Betsy on stage realizing her dream came to fruition. Little gifts all along the way! WOW - The Speakers were first class and personable. Perfect length of time. Copper Mountain Resort did an amazing job on the accommodations and Food / Beverage. Reiteration of the names of the sponsors - recognized a lot and it works!!!

This was my first Camp Experience. It exceeded all expectations. My favorite part was the caliber of ALL the keynote speakers. They were all amazing women!

Learning to pre-pave!

I really liked the Psyche Hike, and all the key note speakers were incredible.

Meeting all the wonderful women - fly fishing and the speakers

Opening speaker - Diane Conway.

The speakers and workshops

I spoke as well so I missed most of the other sessions but i really enjoyed the speakers at lunch and dinner. Also, loved the light up ring.

Talent Show first skit and the amazing speakers
